INTRODUCTION

This offering is made, pursuant to the laws, rules and regulations governing Title II of the JOBS Act, Rule 506(c) of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (S.E.C).

Posh Luxury Cannabis, Inc., is an American company with a planned multinational technology function, with a focus on e-commerce and marketing capabilities.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

The company is in business and is a seller of cannabis and some cannabis accessory products.

The purpose of this bond is to commence the capture of a very large mass consumer scale collection of brands and sellers of luxury cannabis accessories. This large scale capture will allow for all known luxury cannabis accessory brands and sellers to sell from the company's online marketplace.

Posh Luxury Cannabis, Inc., is a New York corporation that is enrolled with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (S.E.C.) The EDGAR CIK number is: 0001948741.

III .

PROJECT DESCRIPTION & USE OF PROCEEDS

This offering will provide the initial capital needed to introduce the 'Posh' brand of products. The initial planned product line will include cannabis and cannabis products, with sellers providing products to be sold under the "Posh" label.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

The initial planned rollout is subject to licensing approvals. The first planned U.S. licensing will be in California.

The first planned overseas licensing will be in, among other countries, Europe and European Zone countries, including Portugal, Switzerland, Luxembourg and Latvia.

Other planned overseas licensing applications will be made for countries in Southeast Asia, as well as for Australia and New Zealand.

The use of proceeds, therefore, includes the futures purchases of products at a discount for resale under the 'Posh' label. In addition, proceeds will be used for extensive worldwide origination recognition of the brand and sales.

IV .

ABOUT THIS BOND

This bond is made pursuant to JOBS Act, S.E.C. Rule 506(c).

Pursuant to said legislation, persons may view this offering on the Internet.

¹ RESTRICTED SECURITY STATUS: Rule 144, 17 CFR § 230.144 - “Persons deemed not to be engaged in a distribution and therefore not underwriters,” defining ‘debt securities,’ applies as this bond does not meet the criteria of the applicable provisions. The bond is deemed a ‘restricted security.’ There are no ‘affiliates’ in the program. Private holders must hold the instrument for one year prior to any sale. Any such sale must be a private sale. Thus, any private resale may take place on or after the 366th day of each note, or on February 9, or thereafter, of each year. We will disburse on February 9 of each year, to the current holder, unless the holder informs of a sale, in which case, we will complete the transaction as between the holder and the buyer, and then disburse.

U.S. investors must be accredited

The bond certificate will show the number of the bond, the relevant names and the date of issue of that bond. We will calculate the maturity date, except as to the first issue bond, as the 366th day after the date on the certificate.

The electronic Form Reg. D and this Second Amended Offering Circular, constitute the complete offering for this bond.

The notes will constitute a separate series of debt, pursuant to JOBS Act authorization.

The notes will be issued in minimum denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof, thereafter.

We reserve the right, from time to time and without the consent of any holders of the notes, to re-open each series of notes on terms identical in all respects to the outstanding notes of such series, except for the date of issuance, the date interest begins to accrue and, in certain circumstances, the first interest payment date, so that such additional notes will be consolidated with, form a single series with and increase the aggregate principal amount of the notes of such series.

The notes constitute our only unsecured indebtedness as of the date of first issue shown on the cover to this Second Amended Offering Circular, and will rank equally with each other.

However, the notes will be structurally subordinated to any prior indebtedness, and will be effectively subordinated to any secured indebtedness to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness.

Claims of the creditors will generally have priority with respect to the assets and earnings of the company, including holders of the notes.

Accordingly, the notes will be effectively subordinated to creditors, including trade creditors and preferred stockholders, if any, of our company.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Prior to the maturity date, we may redeem such series of notes at our option, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, at a redemption price as calculated by us, equal to the greater of:

100% of the principal amount of the notes being redeemed;

the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the notes being redeemed, exclusive of interest accrued to, but excluding the date of redemption, discounted to the date of redemption on an annual basis, plus one day, equal to the interest rate on the notes.

THE BOND IS CONSIDERED TO BE 'INVESTMENT PROPERTY' UNDER U.C.C. Article 9(46)

The bond is considered to be 'investment property' under U.C.C. Article 9(46). Thus, the bond may be recorded in any U.S. courthouse that accepts U.C.C. filings.

VII .

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations of the ownership and disposition of the notes. This summary is based upon provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the "Code," applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions in effect as of the date of this Second Amended Offering Circular, any of which may be subsequently be changed, possibly retroactively, or interpreted differently by the Internal Revenue Service, or the “IRS,” so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below. Except where noted, this summary deals only with a note held as a capital asset upon issuance at the first price at which a substantial portion of the notes of the applicable series is sold for cash to persons other than bond houses, brokers, or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers.

This summary does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxes, including the impact of the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income, and does not deal with all tax consequences that may be relevant to holders in light of their personal circumstances or particular situations, such as:

a) tax consequences to U.S. holders whose ‘functional currency’ is not the U.S. dollar;

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

b) tax consequences to 'controlled foreign corporations,' 'passive foreign investment companies,' and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;

c) tax consequences to persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the notes being taken into account in an applicable financial statement;

d) tax consequences to entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and investors therein;

e) tax consequences to certain former citizens or residents of the United States;

f) alternative minimum tax consequences, if any;

g) any state local or foreign tax consequences, if any, and;

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

h) estate or gift taxes.

If an entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds notes, the tax treatment of a partner or member generally will depend upon the status of the partner or member and the activities of the entity. If you are a partner or member in such an entity, you should consult your tax advisors.

If you are considering the purchase of notes, you should consult your tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences to you in light of your own specific situation, as well as consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax laws or under the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

In this discussion, we use the term “U.S. holder” to refer to a beneficial owner of notes that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

a) an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

b) a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;

c) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation, regardless of its source;

d) a trust, if it:

1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or;

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

We use the term “non-U.S. holder” to describe a beneficial owner of notes that is neither a U.S. holder nor a partnership or other entity that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN INCOME, FRANCHISE, PERSONAL PROPERTY AND ANY OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE NOTES.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

It is anticipated, subject to any exceptions which your tax attorney or advisor may indicate, that interest paid on the notes generally will be taxable to a U.S. holder as ordinary interest income at the time such payments are accrued or received in accordance with the holder's regular method of tax accounting.

Subject to any exceptions which your tax attorney or advisor may indicate, a U.S. holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of a note (except to the extent the amount realized is attributable to accrued and unpaid interest, which will be taxable as ordinary interest income to the extent not previously included in income) and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such note.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the note generally will be the initial purchase price for such note. Any gain or loss recognized on a sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of the note will be capital gain or loss. If, at the time of the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of the note, a U.S. holder is treated as holding the note for more than one year, such capital gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss. Otherwise, such capital gain or loss will be a short-term capital gain or loss. In the case of certain non-corporate U.S. holders (including individuals), long-term capital gains are generally eligible for reduced rates of U.S. federal income taxation. A U.S. holder's ability to deduct capital losses may be limited.

Information reporting requirements generally will apply to interest on the notes and the proceeds of a sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of a note paid to a U.S.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

holder unless the U.S. holder is an exempt recipient (such as a corporation).

Backup withholding will apply to those payments if the U.S. holder fails to provide its correct taxpayer identification number, or certification of exempt status, or if the U.S. holder is notified by the IRS that it has failed to report in full payments of interest and dividend income. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

VIII .

TAXATION OF NON-U.S. HOLDERS

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if you are a non-U.S. holder, U.S. federal withholding tax will not be applied to any payment of interest on a note to a non-U.S. holder.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if you are a non-U.S. holder, gain recognized by a non-U.S. holder on the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of a note will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if a non-U.S. holder is an individual or foreign corporation, he, she or it may be subject to tax on the net gain derived from the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition under regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates and in the same manner as if the non-U.S. holder were a U.S. holder.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if a non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, under certain conditions, it may be subject to the branch profits tax.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if a non-U.S. holder is eligible for the benefits of an income tax treaty between the United States and its country of residence, any such gain will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the manner specified by the treaty and generally will only be subject to U.S. federal income tax if such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, generally, the amount of interest paid to non-U.S. holders and the amount of tax, if any, withheld with respect to those payments must be reported annually to the IRS and to non-U.S. holders. Copies of the information returns reporting such interest and withholding may also be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which a non-U.S. holder resides under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, in general, a non-U.S. holder will not be subject to backup withholding with respect to payments of interest that we make.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) may apply.
